MARYLAND ADOPTS CHANGES TO PERSONAL AUTO NOTICE REGULATION

BACKGROUND

The Maryland Insurance Administration has amended Regulation 31.08.03 pertaining to the required notices of premium increase and reduction in coverage. The significant changes in the Regulation are:

- Changed the MIA notice form numbers from 1002-A to 1006-A and from 1002-B to 1006-B.
- Added provisions to the notice forms.
- Notice forms now only have to be sent in duplicate instead of triplicate.
- Notice forms must be printed in 12 pt type instead of 11 pt type.

COMPANY ACTION

If an insurer uses a version other than the MIA prescribed notice forms, these must be filed with the MIA.

EFFECTIVE DATE

March 10, 2008

AVAILABILITY

A copy of the regulation showing the revisions may be accessed on the MIA's website at:
